Dear Mother + Dad.

France
22 Jan, 1945

Suprise! Suprise! Look where I am. It was a long hard trip but I made it. I guess that we took advantage of every known means of conveyance to get here. Incidentally, I am now eligible for the 40+8 Club when I go home, having ridden in one of those 40+8 railroad wagons.

Boy! I'm glad I took as much French as I did in school. It certainly helps here. I was astounded to learn that the people here understand me, and I can actually understand them. I have become a sort of official interpreter for one party. One old French man brought me to his house to get warm. He introduced me to his wife and daughter and I spent about three quarters of an hour answering questions about America. They were very good to me.

Well that is about all for now. I just wanted to let you know where I was and that I am all right. In fact, I am doing fine. I will write again when I have more time.

Your Loving Son
